

R Wireless G-12 Twin

F Cordless 12-Button Game Pad

The new MaxFire Libre Wireless G-12 Twin is designed for two players who want to challenge or join each other in playing games. It provides twin wireless game pads with reliable, flawless communication that do not require a direct line of sight to your PC or the receiver and both work up to two meters away. You're finally free from any obstacles so you can have lots of fun with your family and friends.

With an ultra-responsive D-pad and 12 programmable rapid-fire buttons, you not only can assign different moves any time but also can win quickly against any opponent. Best of all, with its power saving design for long battery life and two channels for reducing interference among wireless devices, the MaxFire Libre Wireless G-12 Twin will easily let you enjoy PC games without any annoyance.

Try it now and once you start, you won't want to stop!
